

600 FESTIVAL ASSOCIATION FACT SHEET

The 600 Festival Association, a nonprofit organization that has promoted and celebrated motorsports in the local region for more than 30 years, will produce five family-friendly events during the month of May to coincide with the races at Charlotte Motor Speedway.

Event	Movies on the Campus	Zucchini 600	Haulers on Union Parade & Fan Fest presented by Freightliner	Little 600	Circle K Speed Street presented by Coca-Cola
What	Enjoy a night with the family with a free showing of Disney's Cars 3. Pack a picnic, grab a blanket or some lawn chairs and load the family in the van for a free, fun evening.	Drivers start your zucchinis! With ingenuity and imagination, youngsters construct workable, rolling vehicles out of zucchini for a matchup of Cabarrus County's young racing talent. Registration and constructions begins at 10 a.m. Races at noon.	More than 30 NASCAR haulers will parade down Union Street accompanied by a free festival including live beach music, kids' activities, food, giveaways, race cars and more.	The 15-lap main event will showcase a full field of NASCAR drivers in addition to spotter and future stars races. Entry is free.	From noon to 8 p.m., access to racing's brightest stars and interactive displays along Tryon Street are free. Starting at 6:30 p.m., national headliners take the stage in Romare Bearden Park. Ticket prices vary per performance.
