

J. Vito, Tony Lelo, and 2E are a trio of North Carolina natives known as The Hamiltones. The group started as background vocalists for Grammy winning soul singer Anthony Hamilton. When their behind the scenes clips of quartet-style cover songs were uploaded to the Internet, it caught fire. Since then, The Hamiltones have been featured on The Breakfast Club and the Steve Harvey Morning Show. The group sold out The Apollo and has been featured on four Grammy-nominated albums; including Anthony Hamilton, PJ Morton, Johnathan McReynolds and Tori Kelly.

Although these accomplishments are impressive, to The Hamiltones, the music is more important than any accolade. Fans waited patiently for the group's debut "Watch The Ton3s." The project received rave reviews from Sway In The Morning, The Breakfast Club and a long list of other media appearances. The EP was followed with "Watch The Ton3s - The B Side" on Feb. 14, 2020.
